

George Manigo

April 18, 1947 - July 19, 2005

GEORGE MANIGO JR., son of George Manigo Sr. and Lillian Fowlkes was born on April 18, 1947 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed his life on July 19, 2005 after a lengthy illness. He received his education in Baltimore City schools, after which he attended CCB College to become an addiction counselor. He was also an ordained deacon at Hallelujah Baptist Church. He married Debra Rogers on August 1, 1998. He was employed many years as a landscaper, always proud of his work. He loved to read and write poetry, and he loved to help everyone no matter how large the project was. He was a people person, loved by everyone; but his greatest love was children. He loved God, and he spent most of his hours in church where he would sing His praises. He was currently a member of the Jehovah's Witness Kingdom Hall. He leaves to mourn: his wife, Debra Manigo; father, George Manigo Sr.; mother, Lillian Fowlkes; sons, Steven Clay, George Gary Manigo, David Orlando Manigo and one daughter, Patrice Manigo; brothers, Rev. Dr. Robert Manigo, Michael Manigo, Gregory Manigo, Darrell Manigo and Andre Manigo; sisters, Mary Truesdale, Annette Manigo-Massey, Elaine Manigo; and three stepchildren, Antoinette Moses, Christopher Reese and Richard Lighty; one brother-in-law, eleven sisters-in-law, thirteen grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God, Jehovah says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. The Bible also promises that we will be able to see our dead loved ones again by means of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29) It is my hope that you will be comforted by these scriptures.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. First Corinthians 15:26 rightly calls death our enemy, that same verse assures that death will be destroyed? What hope is there for our dead loved ones? Daniel 12:2 says- "And there will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up." Yes, many will be raised to life on a peaceful paradise earth, and at that time there will be no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. (Matthew 5:5, Isaiah 25:8 and Luke 23:43) May these divinely inspired promise give you much comfort, strength and hope in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
