Kenny, you were more than a friend to me, my son and my brother. Over the past few days, I took a brief trip down memory lane....so many thoughts of times you were there for us....times that I personally had no one to turn to, and without judging, you traveled miles to help me through my mess. I can honestly say that God used you as an instrument to make my life such a blessing as it is today. R.I.P. my friend...from Bee, Black's mom
