

George Eldredge Mills

March 6, 1914 - March 21, 2012

GEORGE ELDREDGE MILLS, son of the late James and Tabitha Mills, was born on March 6, 1914, in Johnson Neck, Maryland and was one of seventeen children. It was in Snow Hill, Maryland where George grew up.

George did not receive much formal education, because he began working on the family farm full-time when his family became ill. In 1937, George and Aurelia Mills became husband and wife. They were together for more than sixty wonderful years of marriage. Together they had a son, George W. Mills (who has recently passed away) and daughter Dorelina Shipley (who is also deceased).

George had many jobs during his lifetime such as working on the family farm. He was also a truck driver and hauled produce from the Eastern Shore to New York. George also worked construction on the Chesapeake Bay Bridge. It was at Bethlehem Steel that he was employed for more than thirty years and retired at the age of sixty-five.

During his retirement he enjoyed helping to raise his grandchildren and great-grandchildren. He also found pleasure working in his garden and household projects. George enjoyed traveling with his wife Aurelia and visiting family and friends. There were many dinners and special occasions held at the Mills household. Everyone was welcome to laugh, eat and have fellowship. His door was always open to come visit, sit and talk, and listen to his words of wisdom. In his final years he lived with his loving daughter Maeola Thompson and Melvin Hines.

George loved the Lord and was a dedicated member of Christian Temple in Catonsville. When he was not in church he enjoyed listening to gospel music, sermons on tape and reading the bible.

He leaves behind: a daughter, Maeola Thompson; grandchildren, James Harris, Dannette Ewell, David Harris, Ronald Thompson, Annette Mills and Edward Shipley; a daughter-in-law, Marilyn Mills; a host of great-grandchildren, other family and fiends.

Hello Family and Friends,

I would like to send my deepest condolences to you and your family. I too have lost 4 family members in 1 week just this month and it has been hard to cope with. One thing that helps comfort me is the love of Jehovah God. Reading the Bible to draw strength, I found comfort in the scripture at, 2 Corinthians 1:3 "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort." This Bible verse indicates that God can help greiving ones endure any problem or challenge that they may face. One way he does this is through comfort from a friend or loved one. Today, I would like to be such a friend.

Something else that gives me great comfort is the promise that Jesus will bring dead loved ones back to a perfect life! Jesus said: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." (John 11:25) The Bible teaches that the dead will live again. While Jesus was on earth, he showed that he is able to resurrect the dead. On one occasion, he resurrected a 12-year-old girl. How did her parents react? They "were beside themselves with great ecstasy." (Mark 5:42) I'm sure that you would have the same reaction!

In the Lords Prayer, many pray for "Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, As it is in heaven". Under the rule of his Kingdom, the heavenly King Jesus Christ will resurrect untold numbers of people to life here on earth—but under peaceful and righteous conditions. (Acts 24:15; 2 Peter 3:13) Imagine the great ecstasy when the dead come back to life and are reunited with their loved ones!

May you and your family find much comfort in the scriptures and through God's love.

*Sincerely,
A Friend~*
