George P. Brown, son of the late Clarence A. Brown Sr. and Rosie E. Bowser, was born on September 29, 1937 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this earthly life and God granted him his two wings on April 2, 2008. He received his early education in the Baltimore City Public School System and graduated from Douglass High School. After graduating from high school, George joined the United States Air Force where he completed four years and finished with an honorable discharge. George was employed as a produce manager for Acme Markets where he worked for thirty years until retirement. Shortly thereafter he went to work for the Maryland Racetrack for ten years. “ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. The loss of one we love causes much sorrow and grief for us all. However there is a remedy to this condition of death. It is the resurrection promised by "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who will comfort us in all our tribulations" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4). Job 14:14,15 lets us know that God has a "yearning" an earnest longing and desire to resurrect the dead. May you find comfort from these promises in God's word the Bible as we await the fulfillment of this wonderful provision.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ Please accept our condolences for the loss of your loved one. We have received much comfort, hope and strength from the Bible over the years and we want to share it with you. One such verse is Acts 24:15 which declares: "There is going to be a resurrection." It is our hope that you are comforted everytime you read this from your Bible and think on it.##imported-begin##The Hill's##imported-end##

“ I offer my sincere condolences to the family of Mr Brown. The death of a loved one is so hard to come to grips with, and it touches the lives of families the world over. Will we ever see an end to sickness and death? Isaiah 25,8 gives us this satisfying answer. "He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. "And the reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth, for Jehovah himself has spoken it." "And in that day one will certainly say: "Look! "This is our God. "We have hoped in him, and he will save us." "This is Jehovah. "We have hoped in him." "Let us be joyful and rejoice in the salvation by him." One day those words will come to pass, and all those who have died will come to life again. John 5:28,29. May Jehovah's and Jesus"s love be with you at this time.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of Mr. Brown. Job chapter 14, verses 14,15 lovingly reveals: "If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? All the days of my compulsory labor I shall wait, Until my relief comes. You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning." May you experience much comfort and strength every time you think about this wonderful resurrection hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Hill##imported-end##
