

George Phillip Coates

May 24, 1928 - January 25, 2003

George P. Coates was born in Baltimore, Maryland on May 24, 1928 to the late Arthur James Coates and Annie Mae Coates. George worked in many jobs such as usher at the Lenox Movie Theater on Pennsylvania Avenue and the Carey Movie Theater. George retired as superintendent of the Gwynn Crest Apartments after thirty years with the company. George was preceded in death by his wife, Camora E. Coates. He would say, "I just saw Camora or my mother pass or standing in the door. Did you see them, Ed?" He left this world on January 25, 2003 at 8:30 a.m. to join them. He leaves to cherish his memory: a sister, Angela Arter; brothers, Edward R. Coates and wife Anna, and Harry T. Coates; three stepchildren, Michael Davis, Brenda Davis and LaVerne Williams; four nieces, Deborah Coates, Carol Zollicoffer and husband Thurman, Linda Wooden and husband William and Angela Lloyd and husband Allen; three nephews, Carl, William and Larry Coates; a host of other relatives and friends.
