

George R. Carroll

March 2, 1920 - October 2, 2006

George Richard Carroll, Jr., known affectionately as "Dickey Boy," the son of the late George Richard Carroll, Sr. and the late Mary E. Washington Carroll, was born on March 2, 1920 in Clarksburg, Maryland. George slipped quietly away on Monday, October 2, 2006. Dickie was educated in the public schools. He attended Clarksburg Elementary and Lincoln High in Rockville, Maryland. "Mr. Fix-it," he had various jobs and worked with the Womack Electric Company until they closed. George enjoyed the pleasures of this world. He took the initiative to educate himself, learning about world history, the human mind, skillfully mastering checkers and the chess games. He would speak of the good book "The Bible" as the best book to read. He loved to play checkers and chess, always letting you win a few games. Sometimes before you would make your move he would ask, "Are you sure you want to make that move?" There were times on certain moves he would laugh saying, "No, you don't want to make that one." He loved the games. George often told stories of his life experiences that keep you in stitches (some true, others you question). He carried on great conversations, and he loved people and they loved him. His personality was affectuous and a great smile to match. George always enjoyed church. He attended the Parklane Baptist Church for a time until he moved. Even then he still attended another church. He often spoke of the importance of serving God and ain't nothing like that "word". George had significant relationships in his life that had great impacts of him. His love will always be heartfelt by all. He was preceded in death by his brothers Earl E.

Carroll, Elmer E. Carroll; one sister, Louise Carroll-Stewart; two daughters, Rene McKay and Georgia Gray; and long-time significant other, Rosa L. McKay. George leaves to cherish and celebrate his life: daughters, Jennifers Joyner-Green (James), Sherrie D. Williams (Joseph), Deborah Owens (Frank)' sons, Lloyd (Billy) Reese, Leroy McDonald; brother, Leroy S. Carroll; sister, Ruth R. Brown; twenty-two grandchildren, seventeen great-grandchildren, six great-great-grand-children and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. No matter how long our loved ones have lived it still hurts deeply when they fall asleep in death. First Corinthians 15:26 lovingly assures us that our enemy death will be destroyed. The Bible gives much hope for our dead loved ones. Acts 24:15 declares that there is going to be a resurrection. May you receive much comfort from these loving promises found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences on the loss of your loved one. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. However, there is a source of comfort for us. God's Word, the Bible assures us that "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort...comforts us in all our tribulation." 2 Corinthians 1:3,4. It also offers us the solution to our source of distress at Acts 24:15 and John 5:28,29. Please contact me if you would like to discuss this wonderful provision further.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
