

George R. Corbin

January 1, 1931 - October 26, 2001

George R. Corbin, Sr., son of Pleasant Corbin and Dolly Corbin, was born on January 1, 1931 in Gloucester, Virginia. He departed this life on October 26, 2001 after a lengthy illness. He received his education in Gloucester County. At the age of eighteen, he was drafted into the Army. After his tour of duty, he received an honorable discharge. He was proud to be in the Army and he worked hard and earned three Bronze Stars. Being a very proud person, he didn't return home to Gloucester. He set off to make a life for himself. He moved to Baltimore and met a tall brown skin lady with long black hair. Her name was Maybell Manning. They courted for some years and then got married on November 9, 1955. Out Of this union two children were born, George and Dolly. George made numerous friends and devoted his time to helping them And didn't give a second thought about his health. Sick or well, he would go to the aid of anyone who would require his help. He leaves to mourn: his wife, Mrs. Maybell Manning Corbin; one son, George J. Corbin; one daughter, Dolly Annette Corbin Lewis; one son-in-law, Johnnie Lewis; two brothers, Pleasant Sr., and McKinley of Gloucester; four sisters-in-law, Rosella, Irene, Almae and Mary of Gloucester; several nieces and nephews and many friends. My Dearest Husband, We shared forty-seven years together. "Yes," we had our share of problems; Which made our bond stronger. I know you are at peace and in a better place. Your spirit and love will remain in my heart. For the spirit of you will keep me going until we meet again Your Loving Wife
