

George R. Rogers

August 7, 1949 - February 5, 2018

George Robert Rogers, affectionately known as “Ice Man” son of the late Robert Crosby and Veronica Robinson was born on August 7, 1949 in Baltimore, Maryland. He unexpectedly departed this life on February 5, 2018.

George received his education through the Baltimore City Public schools. He was very close with his family and loved to make people laugh. George favorite scripture was Psalm 23. “The Lord is my Shepherd, I shall not want.” Everyone knew George, loved him and his positive spirit. George had a “do right” spirit and helped everyone he came into contact with.

George is predeceased by his mother, Veronica Robinson; father Robert Crosby; his sisters Marie Thornton and Mahalia Washington; brother-in-law, Carl Washington; his cousin, George Fitzgerald, his grandmother. Sara Rogers, his aunt, Mary Mitchell; his uncles, John Rogers and George Rogers.

George is survived by seven sisters, Veronica Webb (Alvin Webb), Bernadette Vaughn (Cornell Vaughn), Sarah Gupton (Joseph Grupton), Maxine Duffy (Gerald Duffy), Ella Partlow (Ralvin Partlow), Dorothy Slaughter (Anthony Washington), Charles Harvey; and three brothers, Robert Rogers, William Robinson, and Frank Robinson; a host of nieces, nephews, friends and relatives, and a devoted friend Norlanda T
