

George Ronnie Braxton

November 6, 1947 - December 7, 2001

On Friday, December 7, 2001, George R. Braxton left his earthly life after a brief illness. George “Ronnie” Braxton was born on November 6, 1947 to Sylvia Braxton and the late George Braxton. Ronnie was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System, where he graduated from Douglas High School in 1967. In 1968, Ronnie joined “Uncle Sam’s” Army. While in the service, Ronnie married his high school sweetheart, Delores Campbell. From this union two daughters were born. Ronnie received an honorable discharge after serving twenty-two years as a supply sergeant. In 1990 Ronnie worked for the United States Post Office for a little while. George R. Braxton leaves to cherish his memory: his mother, Sylvia Braxton; three daughters, Carolyn, Shelley and Antoinette; seven grandchildren; one sister, Sylvia Smith; two loving aunts, Mary L. Moore and Lossie Belle Goode; one nephew, two nieces; a devoted and loving friend, Linda Mathais; and a host of other relatives and friends.
