

George Slocum

September 14, 1943 - November 28, 2020

GEORGE EDWARD SLOCUM, born on September 4, 1943 in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Roland Edward Slocum and Martha Ellen Slocum, was the third born of seven children. Two brothers, Roland Ernest Slocum Jr. (Ernest) and Albert Steven Slocum (Chubby) preceded him in death. George departed this earthly plane on November 28, 2020 after a lengthy illness.

George attended Douglass High School in Baltimore, Maryland and immediately joined the United States Air Force to further his education and serve his country. George knew the Lord and gave his life to Christ at an early age attending St. James Episcopal Church in Baltimore, Maryland. George met and fell in love with Margaret immediately accepting Tyra, Margaret, Gayle, Jo, Brent and Marcella as his very own. George and Margaret went on to have three more children: George, Toni and Kimberly. George loved music, the outdoors and especially water. George was an experienced swimmer, an avid boater and fisherman making it a way of life and a great pastime for himself and his children.

George was a very loving father, grandfather, brother and uncle. He was faithful in his love of family and friends.

George had many friends at the Waters Tower Apartment Community where he resided.

He leaves behind to cherish his memory: one son, George Edward Bacon (Rosalind M. Bacon) of Richmond, Virginia; two daughters, Toni Ogden (Steven Ogden) of Hagerstown, Maryland and Kimberly M. Nelson

(Anthony Pope) of Hanover, Pennsylvania; four siblings, Roosevelt Johnson, Evangeline Slocum (Ann), Marion Slocum and Lolita Slocum (Lo); five grandchildren, Tyra M. Bacon, George E. Bacon Jr., Dontrell K. Sharpe, Damon O. Nelson and Stephon D. Bacon; six great grandchildren, Amiyah N. Jones Sharpe, Aniyah T. Sharpe, Jordon E. Bailey, Ariyah M. Bailey, Sevin Sharpe, Kayar K. Sharpe and Bly N. Nelson; two devoted cousins, Debra Alston and Louise Thomas; and two medical providers that were always there and like daughters to him, Michelle Johnson and Helen Rawas.
