

George Taylor, Jr.

February 23, 1941 - May 11, 2012

George Taylor, Jr. departed this life on Friday, May 11, 2012. He was born on February 23, 1941 in Halifax, North Carolina to the late George B. Taylor, Sr. and Josephine Taylor.

He was educated in the Halifax County school system. He moved to Richmond, Virginia in 1971. George was an entrepreneur for 25 years as the owner of National Disposal Service. He was employed by Tarmac and later retired from S.B. Cox Ready Mix Incorporation.

George lived to the fullest. A sweet spirit dwelled in his heart and the impact of that sweetness was contagious. George had an infectious smile that was witnessed by many and a laugh that was so joyous that you simply could not resist laughing right along with him. A memorable statement that George would quote to his wife was, "If you love me forever, I will love you to death." Today as we celebrate George's life, that promise to love his wife until death has become a reality. He had a love and passion for gardening and once he retired, George spent most of his time grooming his garden and chasing the squirrels away.

George was predeceased by his sister, Velma T. Watson and brothers, Luther, Harry and Abraham Taylor.

George leaves to cherish his memory, a loving wife Joyce Taylor; daughters, Phyllis M. Moore, Tonda Jones (Roderick), Wanda Ellis (Darryl), Cynthia Artis-Smith (Rodney), and Marguatter Vaughan (Antonio) of Richmond, Virginia; sons, (Anthony) Fardan Hakim (Marguerite), George Taylor and David Ross of Richmond, Virginia; sister, Harriet Taylor of Fort Washington, four brothers, James and Robert Taylor of Richmond, Virginia, Charles Taylor of Landover Hills, Maryland, and Dwight Taylor of Rocky Mount, North Carolina; 22 grandchildren, 7 great-grandchildren; devoted aunts, cousins and a host of relatives and friends. Special thanks to his hospice nurse, Chelsey Primdah.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be "a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
