“ *I will always remember the laughter when walking in a room where "uncle" George was. I would say... I'm George! He would say "no I'm George. You can't be George!" Everybody in the room would be laughing. Seems like only a few months ago he was driving himself around anywhere he wanted to go. I can only wish that I could live a long life, with a sharp mind, brilliant wit like George was blessed with. He always thought of others first. Even if he didn't get it back. Love you family. Keep your head up because he lived a good life.

“ I am so full of feeling about the passing of Mr. George, "Papa G". Such a beautiful old soul who loved Mrs. Ardell, children and grandchildren, and served our church. I still remember his gentleness when Bruce escorted me to my debutante ball. He had a hearty laugh, great sense of humor, sensitive and thoughtful. I am so happy we talked more in the last few years. He played the hand he had so well. Hope we can do the same. Thanks for showing us how to play the deck. Love you Debra, Tyrone and Bruce
