

George W. Cameron

February 22, 1936 - April 24, 2004

George W. Cameron, son of the late Milton and Althea Cameron, was born February 22, 1936 in Roxboro, North Carolina. He departed this life on April 24, 2004 of natural causes. George, who was affectionately known as Kingfish, received his education at Roxboro High School in Roxboro, North Carolina. In 1955 he moved to Baltimore, Maryland to begin a new life. A few years after arriving in Baltimore he met and married the late Virginia Battle. In 1967 he started working at Charles Engineering where he worked for twenty-six years and later retired in November of 1993. George's favorite hobbies were fishing and wrestling; and he was a true avid sports fan. He will be missed by all that knew him. He leaves to mourn: two sons, Theartis Sr. and Dariton Battle; two daughters-in-law, Ruth and Carolyn Battle; five grandchildren, Hollywood Scott, Theartis Jr., Krissie, Justin, and Derek Battle; three brothers, Jerry, Ben, and Bud Cameron; sister, Annie Featherstone; brother-in-law, Jesse Hollaway; sister-in-law, Sheba Cameron; a wonderful and devoted friend, Mrs. Ruth White; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences during your time of loss. May you find comfort in knowing that God "is near to those that are broken at heart and crushed in spirit he saves." (Psalms 34:18). Itn't this a comforting thought? Please find comfort in the Bible's message.##imported-begin##Sean##imported-end##

“ Though during your time of grief it may not seem possible but there is always light at the end of every tunnel especially when someone dear has been separated from us due to death. Death in this present day is not something we want as a part of life’s cycle. Our heavenly father Jehovah God wants you to know that. He wants all people to know he is aware of all our suffering and losses due to our enemy Satan and he will soon rectify because this is not the way he purpose life to be. 1John 4:8 lets us know God is Love so out of his love for us he made a provision that only the true and Almighty God can do. Jehovah have promise according to Rev 21:3,4 that death one day will be no more... the things that causes pain and mourning will be no more. As for those we have lost to death, John 5: 28, 29 states those in the memorial tombs will hear God’s sons voice, Jesus Christ and will awaken from an eternal sleep that have been made a temporary state now due to the ransom sacrifice of Jesus Christ. How wonderful the day when you will be able to enjoy your once lost loved one to death. Yes Jehovah promises us the gift of everlasting life according to Titus 1:2. The righteous ones will reside on earth forever as he informs us at Psalms 37:29 because that have always been his purpose since the beginning of mans creation again stated at Titus 1:2. You can have trust in this promised hope because Isaiah 55: 11 states of Jehovah his words will not return to him without results. Yes trust in God’s word the bible because Hebrews 6:18 says it is impossible for God to lie. My prayers are with you.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at John 11:25,26 where Jesus says "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life; and everyone that is living and exercises faith in me will never die at all." May you be comforted by this scripture as I have been many times.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ I had the pleasure of meeting "Mr. George" several times at the Rogers subway station while he was waiting for his ride to pick him up. I always enjoyed talking to him, especially about the bible. He was often comforted by the scriptures we would share with him and he also enjoyed the bible literature we left with him. Just as Mr. George was comforted by the scriptures, I'm sure you will find comfort from the scripture found at John 5:28,29 which says, "...all those in the memorial tombs will here his voice and come out..." So, let's take comfort in the hope that wonderful people like Mr. George are in God's memory and we have the hope of seeing him again.##imported-begin##Sandy Sloane##imported-end##
