“ To the family. I would like to extend my deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. At this very grievous time it could seem extremely difficult to find comfort, but there is a comforter who soothes us in such a way that no human ever could. The Bible calls Jehovah God, “the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all of our tribulation.” (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4) And what’s more his word gives us further relief and a beautiful hope. At John chapter 5, verses 28 and 29 we read of a promise that is very soon to be realized. It speaks of an event in which all who have fallen asleep in death will live again. Yes, a resurrection from an unconscious state, to life right here on a paradise earth. (Psalm 37:10, 11) May you find comfort as you reflect on this wonderful occasion that is to come.##imported-begin##Sausha S.##imported-end##

“ To the family of Mr. Jordan, I offer my sincere sympathy. It truly is unfortunate that we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. Rest assured that God purposed for us to live a long eternal life and his purpose has not changed. He offers the resurrection hope (Acts 24:15) for those who have fallen asleep in death and the hope of life everlasting (Rev 21:3,4) for those who exercise faith (John 3:16). May this provide you with comfort now and in the days to come. Please contact me if you would like to discuss this wonderful promise.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ I wish to send my deepest condolences to the family of Mr Jordan. It's so hard for a family to deal with the loss of a loved one, and It's something no family should have to go through. God didnot desire this saddness for us. We can see that by the way he created Adam and Eve. He put them in the paradise Garden of Eden, and took care of all their needs; fullfilling their every desire. But sadly they didn"t appreciate God"s love; and therefore brought pain and heartache on themselves and the whole human family. Thanks be to Jehovah God though who purposes through the ransom sacrifice of his son, Jesus, to undo what Adam brought upon us. For that reason 1st Cor 15:22 says, "For just as in Adam all are dying, so also in the Christ all will be made alive. Through the promised ressurection many will come out of the memorial tombs to life everlasting. To carry on that thought 1st Cor 15:21 says, "Since death is through a man (Adam), ressurection of the dead is also through a man (Jesus). One day George will open his eyes again, by exercising faith in the ransom, you will be able to be with him again forever. May you find much comfort and strength from the promises of Jehovah found in the bible.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
