“ I am so sorry to read about the death of your love one.. My family would like to express our condolences to your family. I would like to share this scripture with you at John 5:28, 29 "Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming In which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." I hope this scripture will bring your family comfort that soon you will see your Love one again.

“ To the West Family:
I wanted to write to give you comfort from the bible after reading about the death of your loved one. The bible at Revelation 21:4 says that 'God will 'wipe away, death, sickness and pain'. Then we have the scripture giving us more comfort at Isaiah 25:8. It tells us 'God will swallow up death forever'. So the bible tells us what God's purpose is for our loved ones. We look forward to the time when He will do this.
Well I hope these scriptures have been of comfort to you. If you have any questions or comments please e-mail me.

“ It's hard to say good-bye to someone who was so dearly loved. Happily Jesus Christ has promised that one day “all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out.” (John 5: 28, 29) At that time we will be reunited with our dear loved ones. I truly hope that the words of Jesus Christ can bring you a measure of comfort. Please accept my sincere condolences.

“ Our family would like to express condolences to your family. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's Word The Bible. He assures us at 1 Corinthians 15:26 that “the last enemy death will be brought to nothing”. Our prayers are with your family.

“ My condolences go out to the family of Mr. George West. This must be a difficult time for you, understanding that someone that you loved passed away. God has provided us with comfort in his words from the Bible at Revelation 21:4 says, “And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.”
