George Henry Whitaker Jr., son of the late Lillian and George Henry Whitaker Sr., was born on May 29, 1954 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on October 17, 2023 after a lengthy illness.

George was affectionately known to his family and friends as “Square” and that’s the name he preferred even in his adulthood. George was educated in the Baltimore City Public School system where he attended the Pal Lawrence Dunbar High School.

Square became a father only on and knew he had to provide for his only son; Little George. He began working as a laborer for the Amtrak Railroad Corporation. In 1981. He welcomed his only daughter Latrice and he furthered his career path by gaining employment at the Sparrows Point where he retired.

If you knew George, you know that he loved to play horse at Lake Clifton with his childhood friends. Square would even play in the rain. if he wasn’t playing horseshoe with his childhood friends you could probably find him shopping at foreman Mills. Where he found a sale on a item or two. George was a family man and family was important to him. George will be GREATLY missed by all those knew and loved him.
