

George James White Jr

August 8, 1957 - June 9, 2017

GEORGE JAMES WHITE, JR. (Juney) son of the late George White, Sr. and Pauline Paulson (Leonard, deceased) was born on August 8, 1957 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed his life on June 9, 2017 after a lengthy illness.

George graduated from Edmondson High School class of 1977 and continued his education at Bowie State College.

George started a career in banking in 1980 and ended his career at BB&T Bank where he was highly loved and respected by his clients and his family of coworkers. He was a volunteer with the domestic violence hotline.

George was a faithful member of Saint Gabriel R.C. Church, an active member of the usher board and a member of the Knights of Columbus. He enjoyed planning and gathering family and friends for the church annual crab feast.

Juney was "Mr. Redskins!" Whether it was Edmondson or the Washington Redskins, he had many football debates with family and friends. He attended many Washington Redskins games with his grandsons and brothers. Juney was an avid Washington Redskins memorabilia collector.

George leaves to mourn: his daughter, Danyelle, son-in-law, Eddie Tolliver Sr.; a very proud "Pop Pop" to two grandsons, Robert and Jared; his granddaughter, Cadence (Cay Cay); mother Pauline; two sisters, Merita White, Melita Aye (Darrell); three brothers, Gene (Beverly), Gerald (Tonya), and Gerard (Robin), many, many, friends including lifelong friends, Michelle Williams and William (Sputty) Gilmore; and a host of nieces and nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins.

He was preceded in death by his beloved pet cat, Tiger.

“ My cousin Junior, gave me a Maryland Terrapins t-shirt that says, "Its Showtime" on it my last trip to see the family in 2002. I wore that t-shirt when I played in pick-up park basketball games from San Diego, Los Angeles and San Francisco, CA. "PROUDLY" to tell all my friends my cousin JUNIOR in BALTIMORE gave me that t-shirt. I got holes and tares in it, a frayed shirt collar, and a torn shirt sleeve and STILL WORE my cousins gift.
I only recently retired my t-shirt at my wifes URGENT REQUEST.

My thoughts and wishes go out to my Aunt Pauline and the entire White Family now and always. Know that you are all in my prayers now and forever.

“ My condolences to the entire White family. To Gerard and Gerald, my BCJ comrades and Gene who I met while assisting Coach Merc on the lacrosse field, stay strong brothers! I did not know there were four of you guys but I am sure he was just as dynamic as the three of you are. One love to you guys.

“ George will be dearly missed by his co-workers and clients. George was a friend to all he crossed paths with. He loved sharing his faith and remained steadfast.

Rest in peace my friend.
