

Georgeanna Hubbard

December 1, 1924 - July 6, 2005

GEORGEANNA JONES HUBBARD was born on December 1, 1924, to the late Clarence and Annie Jones, in Northumberland County, Virginia. When she was a toddler, the family moved to Baltimore City. She attended elementary, junior high and senior high school in Baltimore City public schools. She received a B. S. degree from Hampton University and a Master's degree from Morgan State University and graduate courses from New York University. As Department Head and Teacher of Home Economics for over 35 years, she helped to develop Home Economics curriculum/guides. Interested in catering work, she did a fantastic job for social, civic and private organizations. She was well-liked because she was a loving, sharing and caring person with a winning personality. Georgeanna enjoyed being President of her high school class, June '42, for over fourteen years. She joined Fulton Baptist Church under the leadership of Reverend Benjamin Jackson. Georgeanna had a dramatic voice and was often spokesperson, Master of Ceremonies and Presider for many organizations. She was Vice President of the Missionary Society and Financial Secretary of the Emergency Club at Fulton Baptist Church. She was also an "Eastern Star." EARTHLY SICK, HEAVENLY WELL! She leaves to mourn: her sister, Annie Marie Jackson; five nieces, Barbara Willingham, Leatrice Ayers, Rowena Lansey, Sharon Jeffries and Angela Kilson; and nephew, James A. Jackson, Jr.; loving and devoted Tyrone Jeffries ("Mr. Wonderful"); and a host of great-nieces and -nephews. She will be missed by us all!

“ To the family and friends, please accept my sincere condolences during this time of your loss. Please read and find comfort in Psalms 34:18 and Rev. 21:3,4. God promises to do away with death and the pain that it causes. May these scriptures bring you strength and encouragement during your time of sorrow.##imported-begin##McNeil##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future and our loved ones who have lost their life to our enemy death.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. The Bible also promises that we will be able to see our dead loved ones again by means of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29) It is my hope that this scripture comforts you.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##
