

Georgia Cunningham

March 25, 1914 - August 9, 2010

Georgia Cunningham, Widow of Waddie Cunningham and the daughter of the late George and Emma Lyons was born on March 25, 1914 in Spartanburg, South Carolina. On August 9, 2010, our Lord and Savior summoned an angel to escort Georgia Cunningham to her Heavenly home.

Early in life Georgia Cunningham accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior and joined the Shady Grove Baptist Church located in Spartanburg, South Carolina. Georgia relocated to Baltimore, Maryland in 1942 and later joined Douglas Memorial Community Church under the pastorate of the Rev. Dr. Marion C. Bascom, where she was an active member for many years.

“ God is love” and Georgia reflected the love of God in the way she lived her life. Georgia loved her family and friends, so much that her caring and giving spirit touched the lives of everyone she met. She will be especially remembered for her cooking. Georgia enjoyed sewing, fishing, baseball, attending all special family functions and loved to attend the Maryland State Fair.

She leaves to cherish her memory: two dedicated sons, Luther Henderson of Traveler Rest, South Carolina and Booker Henderson of Baltimore, Maryland (sister, Louise Smith and brother, Booker “T.” Lyons both preceded her in death); a devoted granddaughter, Patricia A. Henderson; and a great-granddaughter, Brittney S. Thomas who she assisted with raising. She was also blessed to have fifteen grandchildren and forty-five great-grandchildren; two daughters-in-law, Rachel Henderson of Traveler Rest, South Carolina and Portia Henderson of Baltimore, Maryland; and a host of nieces, nephew, others relatives and friends.
