

Georgia Eulia Moore

May 28, 1924 - December 9, 2005

GEORGIA EULIA MOORE, daughter of Mack McCoy Hairston and Georgia Ann Jones, was born May 28, 1924 in Reidsville, North Carolina; one of six siblings, all of whom have preceded her in death. She received her education at Booker T. Washington High School in Reidsville. After graduation from high school, Georgia married Frank Moore. There was one daughter born of this marriage, Patricia of Connecticut. She later moved to Brooklyn, New York and was employed at the American Book Bindery. In 1977 Georgia relocated to Baltimore where she went to work as a nursing assistant and participated in "The Grandparent Project." She leaves to mourn: her daughter, Patricia; nieces and nephews, Arnold Hairston, Ingrid East, Sherelle East, William Hairston, David Hairston and Linda Bell; and a host of friends and nephews.

“ My condolences on your loss. Take comfort in our Heavenly Father's heartwarming words at Revelation 21:4, where "He will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more neither mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."##imported-begin##D. Spann##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
