

Georgia M Fields

September 3, 1931 - December 30, 2016

Georgia Madora Fields, daughter of the late Moses W. Spicer and Mary L. Spicer Winegan, was born on September 13, 1931 in Cambridge, Maryland. She was the sixth of her siblings raised in a loving home. Georgia departed this life on December 30, 2016.

Georgia received her education in the Cambridge Public School System.

Georgia moved to Baltimore in the 1940's. She met and married the love of her life, Junius William Fields, Shirley Vaughn, Debra Perry, Charles Bernard Fields and Calvin Fields.

Georgia was a good-hearted person who touched all who came in contact with her. She worked very hard as a homemaker for many years.

Georgia took care of the house and children while her husband worked outside of the home. She made sure the children and her husband were up and on time everyday for school and work.

Georgia was very proud of her family. She loved holidays and family gatherings. Any chance to spend time with family was important to her. Georgia loved to watch nature shows on television such as Animal Planet and Wild Kingdom. She also liked to watch the Maury Povich Talk Show. Georgia was known for her feisty, yet good sense of humor. She was very active well into her late 70's. Georgia would mow the lawn, trim the hedges and plant vegetables in the garden.

Preceding her in death are her siblings, Moses Spicer Jr., William Spicer, Mary R. Spicer, Rebecca L. Spicer, Martin H. Spicer, and Samuel F. Spicer.

She leaves to cherish her memory: sons, Julius, Charles and Calvin; daughter, Debra; sisters, Serena Spicer Robinson and Kathleen Spicer Eley; ten grandchildren and sixteen great-grandchildren; niece, Rose Majett; life-long friend, sister-sister; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.
