

Georgia Pareatta Gibson

January 9, 1941 - September 19, 2013

GEORGIA PAREATTA GIBSON, the beloved only daughter of the late George and Rhodella Wingate, was introduced to the world on January 9, 1941 in Baltimore, Maryland. On Thursday, September 19, 2013, GOD called for His angel, and she departed this earthly life into eternal rest.

Little Georgie or Miss Gibs, as she was affectionately known, was baptized in Pennsylvania at the Wesley A.M.E. Church. She would later convert to Catholicism as an adult. She was an active member of the St. Ambrose Roman Catholic Church from 1973 until her health began to fail.

Georgia was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System, where she formally graduated from The Frederick Douglass High School in June, 1959.

She quickly moved on to start her new journey of life in the State of Pennsylvania. While working and living in the Harrisburg area, she met and wed the love of her life, the late Sgt. Alton G. Gibson, United States Army.

Georgia was very active in the community in which she lived. She worked for the Baltimore City public and parochial school systems, was a long-standing member of the P.T.A., Notary Public, and an Elections Judge at the local polling station. Although she would hold numerous jobs throughout her lifetime, her most enjoyable job experience was working with children. All the kids from Loyola Southway will always affectionately remember her home as their second home.

Georgia loved to read and would devour any reading material she could get her hands on, she was a huge sports fan, loved music and cats. You could always find Georgia surrounded by her knick knacks and trinkets obtained through the years and during her travels.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her son, Alton D. Gibson (Gib); her daughter, Rachel M. Gibson; one grandson, Xavier T. Coates; a daughter-in-spirit, China G. Mitchell; cousin, Wilnet Bristow; and a host of other loved ones and friends.

“ My deep condolences to the family of Georgia Gibson. I am so sorry to learn of the death of your dear loved one. The Bible tells us at Isaiah 51:12 "I - I myself am the One that is comforting you people." This is to let you know that God will always comfort you, whether in trying times or happy times. May God continue to care for and bless you abundantly.
