

Georgia I. Johnson

September 28, 1918 - November 3, 2010

GEORGIA INELL JOHNSON, was born on September 28, 1918 in Amelia County, Virginia. She was called home to be with her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on Wednesday, November 3, 2010. She was the very proud daughter of the late Adelaide and Godfrey Perkinson.

Georgia, who was affectionately known as Inell, Nannie and Shorty, was reared in Amelia County, Virginia and it was there that she was united in holy matrimony with Benjamin Giles. Out of this union one child, Joan Audrey Giles, was born. After the death of Benjamin, Inell met and married the late Water Johnson and from that union she gained a son, Calvin Johnson. Inell enjoyed the love and attention of her family and would often proudly proclaim, "All of this came from me!" She would gladly offer assistance wherever she saw a need and wouldn't hesitate to give advice. But one would have to endure the lectures or sermon that came along with it or perhaps even a swat or two from her "Bully cooler." Inell loved doing crossword puzzles, watching game shows, baking her famous butter pound cake, and also watching Joyce Meyers and Joel Olstein. When she wasn't feeling "shackley," Inell served as the family and friends' almanac and historian. If you wanted to know, who was related to who, who was married to who, or who was shacking up with who, just ask Inell.

Inell accepted Christ as her Savior at an early age and is now at peace and happily enjoying those who have gone before her including two brothers and one sister.

Her zest for life shall long be remembered by: her loving daughter and caretaker, Joan Goode; sister, Maxine Thompson; stepson, Calvin Johnson (Helen); brother-in-law, George Johnson (Mary); wonderful and caring grandchildren, Wendy, Sandra, Ronald, Vonda, Kelly and Nicole; step-grandson, Minister Sean Johnson (Dawna); step-granddaughter, Dietrich Williams; great-grandchildren, Cory, Haley, Gabrielle and Jordan; great-great-granddaughter, Janiyah; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends including two very special friends, Otelia Booker and Viola Smith.
