

Georgia Mae Simpson

May 21, 1932 - April 21, 2024

Georgia Mae Simpson, 91, departed this life Sunday, April 21, 2024. She is preceded in death by her parents Samuel and Julia Warrick, and husband John W. Simpson. She is survived by her loving sister, Virginia L. Herron, and eight children: Clarence Jones, Sandra Givens, Julia Jones, Georgette Jones Harris (Barry), Marquita Jones, Ella Jones Winfree, Clayton Jones (Rita) and Marjorie Jones Smith (Lonnie); a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, great-great grandchildren, nieces, nephews; and dear friends.

Georgia Mae was a strong, humble Queen of Queens who persevered through eight decades. She was born in Richmond, VA and raised in Jackson Ward. Georgia Mae was baptized at Third Street AME Church and later joined Trinity Baptist Church. She loved to fellowship with the Solid Gold Ministry and was known as “The Hat Lady”.

Georgia Mae attended Armstrong High School; graduated from the Richmond Training Academy and received a Clerk Typist Certificate. She continued her education and graduated from J. Sargeant Reynolds Community College with a Nurse Aide Certificate. She was an outstanding Resident Companion at The Hermitage Nursing Home. Georgia retired from The Travelers Insurance Company.

Georgia Mae touched our lives in so many ways with her enduring strength, guiding spirit and love of family. Her legacy lives on within all those who touched and shared her life. Rest in Peace.

The funeral service will be held at The Trinity Baptist Church in Richmond, VA

Friday, May 3, 2024, 12:00 pm. Special viewing of Georgia Simpson will be 11:00 am -12:00 pm. Interment at Mt. Calvary Cemetery following the funeral service.

“ Rest in heavenly peace sweet lady. Treated me like an extended family member. I always reveled in participating in your family events, eating your mouthwatering food and most of all listening to your stories. You will be truly missed but I feel blessed to have known you. May God comfort this family and help you all during this difficult time. You are in my thoughts and prayers.
