“ To The Family & Friends of Mr. Gerald Battle, I would like to express my deepest sympathy for the loss of your dear loved one. Jehovah God promises that he will soon wipe out every tear from our eyes and death will be no more (Rev21:4). The Bible also teaches about a future time when those in the memorial tombs will come out by means of a resurrection to life on a peaceful earth (John5:28-29; Psalm37:11,29). Continue to draw close to God and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22). Warmest regards, C. Murphy##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ I am so very sorry that you lost your dear loved one. Losing a loved one that you've shared your life and laughter with, is so hard to come to terms with. You have my deepest sympathy. At times like this lean on the God of all comfort; pour out your hearts to him, because he, better than anyone else knows the pain and heartache you are going through. Most of all read his word, the bible for comfort, because it contains the wonderful promise of an end to sickness and death forever. We're all tired of the violence, seeing all the sicknees, and having to bury our loved ones, but Jehovh God has something wonderful in store for us; if we just trust in him. and put our faith in his promises. At John 3:16 the bible reminds us; "For God loved the world so much that he sent his only-begotten Son, in order that everyone exercising faith in him might not be destroyed, but have everlasting life. Yes, through the Christ, our loved ones will come to life again. May God surround you with his loving care, and may your cherished memories bring peace to your hearts. I invite you to contact me at my e-mail address so that I can share more comfort with you from the bible, and also God's grand purpose for mankind. May you recieve much peace and comfort.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ I am very sorry for your loss. I hope this scripture will give you much comfort. Revelation chapter 21: 4, "and he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning, nor outcry, nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Sincerely, C. Bain##imported-begin##Charlotte Bain##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. 1 Corinthians 15:26 informs us that our "enemy death" is going to be "destroyed". Also, Acts 24:15 declares "there is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength from the Bible's hope of your loved one returning to life.##imported-begin##Mrs. Sharon Hill##imported-end##
