“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is such a hateful and ugly event. But God's words in the Bible gives us hope at John 11:25: We will be able to see our loved ones again by means of the resurrection. You can read about those promises at Isaiah 25:8.

“ May you find comfort and assurance in Almighty God who extends his hand to help us when we face a loss of our precious loved ones. We know he loves and cares for us especially when our hearts are heavy or sadden. I extend to all of you dear family and those who are mourning this loss presently my deepest sympathy. The resurrection hope is sure and a promise made to us by Almighty God who stated at Isaiah 25:8 that he will swallow up death forever. John 25:8,9 states that those who are in the memorial tombs or graves will hear his voice and come out. Revelation 21:3,4 has comforting information because it speaks of a time when anything that causes sorrow or sadness will be gone forever. May you look forward to the time when a great family reunion will occur and our loved ones will be with us again, alive and well. Memories are door ways to comfort when we travel down the road and feel better because of fond times we once enjoyed and look forward to enjoying them again in the future.
