

Gerald A. Davis

March 14, 1967 - February 19, 2017

On Sunday, February 19, 2017 God called his servant from labor to reward.

Gerald Alexander Davis was born on March 14, 1967 to Peggy Davis Chisolm and Jerome Banks in Baltimore City.

He attended Montebello Elementary, Northern Parkway Junior High and Lake Clifton Senior High Schools.

He later went to the PTC School and took classes in computer science.

He worked for several companies in the Baltimore area; Walters Art Gallery, The Maryland Science Center, The Convention Center and Property Management Consultant over the years.

He loved social media, doing online classes and just socializing with people.

He was a loving father and a family oriented man. He was a good friend to all, especially his neighbors where he lived for the last forty years.

Gerald leaves to mourn: his mother, Peggy D. Chisolm; two daughters, Keara and Joy Davis; granddaughter, Logan McClain; sister, Diane Davis; three cousins, Valerie Weeks, Arthea Cure and George Davis; several other cousins and his long time friend, Margo Cavanaugh.
