

Gerald H. George

February 14, 1955 - April 22, 2002

Gerald Hiawatha George was born at City Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland on February 14, 1955 to the late Johnnie George and Ella Louise George. He departed this life suddenly on the morning of April 22, 2002. He completed his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. In his earlier years, he attended Southern Baptist Church as and usher under the late Reverend Grant. His career included working for the Barco Company, Blue Ridge Oil Company and a cement company as a factory worker. He relocated his residence to Syracuse, New York to be with other family members. "Wap," as the family called him, was a loving, caring person. He always had a smile to leave you. He leaves to cherish his memory: mother, Ella L. George (Baltimore, Md.); children, Shameka George and Dwayne George (Baltimore, Md.); grandchildren Mia Jones, Yasmin Stewart, Sabrina Stewart and Ashley Mc Eachern (Baltimore, Me.); sister, Jacqueline T. Hollis; brothers, Robert George (Syracuse, NY), Johnnie L. George (Pasadena, Md.) and Ronnie George (Hartsville, S.C.); sister-in-law, Pauline George (Pasadena, Md.); aunts, uncles, a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
