

Gerald Moore

May 23, 1953 - January 21, 2011

GERALD MOORE, beloved son of Gladys Earlene Moore and John Thomas Hantz, Sr. was born on May 23, 1953 in Baltimore, Maryland.

Gerald, fondly called “Mop” was reared in Baltimore Cit within the neighborhood known as “ Pennsylvania Avenue” home of the famous Royal Theater, King Albert Hall, Daddy Grace Church and the Lennox Theater. While no one knows the exact time and hour of their departure from this life, Gerald believed the words of Jesus that assured us that we are given eternal life by accepting and glorifying the father.

Gerald attended the Baltimore city Public School System and received vocational certifications from the Job Corps and Lincoln Technical Institute. He was previously employed with Montgomery Wards, Koppers and was presently at Circular Advertisement Corporation for several years.

Gerald will be remembered as a good hearted person. He always sought to assist others whenever possible. He was a committed husband, grandfather, family member and faithful friend. He loved cooking homemade meals(especially a pineapple upside down cake), listening to oldies, attending concerts, and taking walks in the park with his wife. Gerald was proud of his accomplishments and would encourage other at at every opportunity to learn as much as they could. Gerald was stricken with a sudden illness which he fought his best to overcome. But, on January 21, 2011 God sent His angels to call Gerald home to take his needed rest.

Preceding Gerald in death are his parents, two brothers one which was his twin, and one sister.

Gerald leaves to mourn: his loving wife, Teresa Moore; sister, Patrice Anderson Cleveland; three brothers, Joseph, Lawrence and Ron; six daughters Rhonda, Gladys, Sonya, Artelia, Elissa and Farrah; two sons, Gerald and Yvon McKoy, Jr.; three sister-in-laws, Annette, Fennille and Denise; daughter-in-law, Monique; three brother-in-law, Troy, Charles and Willie, eleven grandchildren; a good friend, Calvin Buckman, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Will miss you much. You always gave a word that would make my day. May God take you to place you never been see things you never seen and give you experiences that will overwhelm your mind. PEACE Thanks for being part of my life.

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. First Corinthians 15:26 declares that our enemy death is going to be destroyed. There is hope for our dead loved ones to return to life by means of a resurrection. Acts 24:15 lovingly informs us that "There is going to be a resurrection." May you receive much comfort and strength from this wonderful hope that will be made possible from Jehovah God and his only-begotten son Jesus Christ.

“ Although we did not know Mr. Moore, my husband and I are well acquainted with Yvon and his family. This is a great loss, no doubt, to all who loved and knew him. May you be comforted by knowing that almighty God has made a promise to all by means of his son, Jesus Christ that there will be a resurrection. (John 11:11-14) May you also draw strength from God's word at Ps.59:9 "O my Strength, toward you I will keep watch; For God is my secure height."

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
