

Gerald P. Reed

June 24, 1958 - April 20, 2002

Gerald Powell Reed, Sr. son of Adline Allen and Powell Reed, was born on June 24, 1958 in Baltimore, Maryland. He received his formal education in the Baltimore City Public Schools. Seeking a trade, he later enrolled in the Maryland Job Corps Program. Upon his confession of faith, he was baptized in to the Southern Baptist Church Family. Gerald enjoyed his worship experience at Southern and attended services regularly until his health began to fail. Throughout his life, Gerald held employment at a number of establishments. Although most of his working tenure was with the Olive Oil Company, he also worked for the Maryland Youth Center and the City of Baltimore's Evening Maintenance Division. Gerald loved life and tried to live it to the fullest. He loved his family as well and would travel by any means necessary to be with them, even if it meant walking in adverse weather conditions. It was a joy for him to give flowers to his mother and aunts on Mother's Day. In addition, other family members could always expect a telephone call from him on every holiday of the year. On Saturday, April 20, 2002. God dispatched a death angel to the Union Memorial Hospital and Gerald was called to rest. One brother, Ronald Leroy (Pop) and one sister, Irene preceded him in death. He leaves to mourn their loss; three sons, Gerald, Jr., Jawarn, and Jerod; three daughters, Tera, Niaeshia, and Shakena; his loving mother, Adline Allen; his father, Powell Reed; one sister, Beverly Johnson; four brothers, Donnell, Gary, Tim and Kenny; one brother-in-law, Dwight Johnson; two dear friends, Brenda Eggleston and Tiffany Dugger and a special friend, Wanda Dugger; several aunts and uncles; nieces and nephews; and a host of other relatives and friends.
