Gerald R. Boyce, Sr., born on August 3, 1948, departed this life on August 3, 2008, at Good Samaritan Hospital after a short period of illness. “ I offer my deepest condolences to the family of Gerald. Losing a loved one is the most difficult thing that a family has to go through. We all long for a time when death will be no more. According to the bible that time is rapidly approaching, because Almighty God has a wonderful purpose to end sickness and death forever, and to restore life back to those who have already died. This wonderful scripture at 1st Cor 15:26 promises, "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." Then John 5:28,29 promises that all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus's voice and come out." May you find much comfort in knowing that one day Gerald will live again, and you will have the opportunity to be reunited with him again everlasting!. Until that day arrives, may your precious memories help you to cope in the days to come.##imported-begin##rita johnson##imported-end##

“ I grew up with "Skip" in East Baltimore. We lived in the 900 block of Caroline Street at the time. My brothers were known to him as "Greene" (passed on at least 5 years-ago) and Bobbie, known as "Hop" to some. My sisters Betty Jean, Mable, Shirl and Linda. Yes, we were The Price Family of 924 N. Caroline Street. Skip would come to my house very often and spent time with his good friend and my husband Douglas Hill. He was a true friend always willing to give you whatever he had. My children (Scotty, Michael & Jelly-Toni)and grandchildren repected him so much they called him "Uncle Skip". We will miss him very much but we know that he will not be fighting for every breath any more. We will miss the good times we shared with him. May he rest in peace. 10-4 Respectfully submitted, Joann E. Hill & Family##imported-begin##Joann E. Hill##imported-end##
