

Gerald Wayne Smith

September 2, 1962 - November 17, 2009

Our beloved Gerald Wayne Smith of Hanover, Virginia entered into eternal rest Tuesday, November 17, 2009. He was the second of three children born to Doris and Carol Smith of Hanover, Virginia. Gerald Wayne or "Wayne", as he was affectionately called received his education in the Hanover Public School system and graduated from Patrick Henry High School. He was active in sports, especially football. After completing one year in college, he enlisted in the United States Armed Forces in 1982. He served in the army and was stationed in Korea for two years before returning to the United States to raise his family. Wayne received an honorable discharge from the army after serving his country for four years. At an early age, he accepted Christ as his Savior and joined Calvary Episcopal Church of Hanover, Virginia. Wayne loved driving trucks in which he had a career for 17 years. He will always be remembered as a very jovial, loving man that took pride in caring and providing for his family. Wayne was a man that enjoyed holding strong political conversations and had many military and trucking stories that would last for hours. Our beloved Wayne leaves to cherish his loving memories to his devoted parents, Doris G. E. Smith of Richmond and Carol Smith of Hanover, Virginia; four children, Jasmine Smith Keller, Jason James Smith, Taryn Denise Fonseca-Smith and Sarai Ruth Smith; step-daughter, Limari Reyes; two grandchildren, Michael Aytes III and Misa Keller; three step-grandchildren; devoted brother, Brian Keith and sister-in-law, Helen Smith; niece, Brianna; nephew, Brian K. Smith, Jr.; four uncles, aunts, and a host of cousins,relatives and friends.He will be greatly missed by all those who knew him and those whose lives he touched.

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy. I too know the pain of losing dear. May you find comfort in knowing what Jesus himself said, 'all those in the graves will hear my voice and come out (John 5:28-30)'. ##imported-begin##A. Jackson##imported-end##

“ *To the family, Please accept my sincere sympathy. It is truly unfortunate that we have to experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. This is a sorrow that God promises will one day be no more (Rev 21:3,4). As you await the fulfillment of this promise may you find comfort from, "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who will comfort you in all your tribulations."
