

Geraldine B. Bowman

June 26, 1937 - December 7, 2019

Mrs. Geraldine Bernice (Sampson) Bowman, better known as Mema, was released from the constraints of this worldly body at her family home on Saturday, December 7th, at the beautiful age of 82.

Geraldine's legacy is carried on by her children and their spouses, Toni & Kenny Davenport, Brian & Renee Bowman, Lynn & Gordon Bowmaker, and Stephen & Kat Bowman. Her legacy also thrives through her grandchildren, Tiffany, Sherry, Justin, Warren, Chrissie, Jennifer, Trina, Ashley, Geneva, Freedom and Jet; as well as great grandchildren, Briya, Shymira, Kyla, Caleb, Jaelyn, Chris, Sydney, Brooke, Donovan, Aniya, Avery, Addison, Sage and Ezra. She is also remembered by her loving and closest friends, Eartha, Gloria and Martha. Geraldine's passing follows her love and late husband, Jerome Bowman.

James Sampson of Maryland and Rachel Sewell, of the Philippine Islands, gave birth to their 10th child, Geraldine on June 26th, 1937. Geraldine graduated from Frederick Douglass High School in 1956 and soon after married her high school sweetheart, Jerome Bowman, on February 9th, 1958. Maintaining roots in Baltimore, Maryland, Jerome and Geraldine would go on to raise four children. Her children remember her as an outgoing and energetic mother, who was always happy to do anything for them.

Geraldine retired as a State of Maryland employee and went on to be an administrative support for PharmaConnect and an accomplished and real estate agent. She was an active committee member and previous president of Douglass High School's "Class of 56"; as well as a dedicated member of Colonial Baptist Church where she served as a Sunday School teacher, Historical Committee member and an active member of the Good News Club. Geraldine was a generous, witty woman who loved bowling every Wednesday, was an avid roller skater, and who also loved being Mema.

“ An excellent member of the PharmaKinetics team, Gerri was conscientious and compassionate and clearly had a strong sense of service. Sometimes workplace relationships have little depth, but Gerri knew how to find us because she was a good listener, with interest and empathy.

To her family, she is so proud of you - she is a treasure within your heart whenever you need her.

*Blessings and peace to all of Gerri's family,
Alice Chase Robeson*
