“ I send my condolence to the family on the loss of your loved one. But there is comfort to be taken from the Bible. John 5:28,29 describes a resurrection when your loved one will live again on earth. Also, Revelation 21:4 describes a time on earth when there will be no more pain, sickness, or death. May you be comforted in your time of grief.##imported-begin##Kendra A##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God, Jehovah says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. The Bible also promises that we will be able to see our dead loved ones again by means of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29) It is my hope that you will be comforted by these scriptures.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. The Bible rightly calls death an enemy. (1 Corinthians 15:26) That same verse also informs us that death will be destroyed. But, what hope is there of seeing our loved ones who have died? The Bible gives us the hope of our dead loved ones returning to life on a paradise earth in which there will be no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. (Revelation 21:3-5, Matthew 5:5 and Isaiah 33:24) May you receive much comfort and strength from these promises from our Creator.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##
