

Geraldine A. Davis

August 7, 1931 - December 25, 2019

GERALDINE ALFREDA WILLIAMS DAVIS, daughter of the late David Howard and Mary Price Williams, was born on August 7, 1931, in Halifax County, North Carolina; she transitioned into eternal rest on Christmas day, Wednesday, December 25, 2019 at home surrounded by her loving family. Geraldine received her formal education in the Halifax County Public School System where she graduated from McIver High School in Littleton, North Carolina.

She accepted Christ as her personal Savior in her very early years and became a dedicated member of the South Street Missionary Baptist Church in Littleton, NC.

Geraldine later moved to Baltimore, Md. where she was united in Holy Matrimony to Numis Ransom Davis. They had six daughters and one son. Together they worked as entrepreneurs with a successful poultry business in Belair Market for many years (both Numis and Roland preceded her in death) Geraldine was a very hard worker who later worked in the dietary department for the State of Maryland over 35 years; she started at Mount Wilson State Hospital and later retired on May 24, 1995 from the Rosewood Center in Owings Mills, Md.

Geraldine became a member of Wayland Baptist Church and then marched to and joined the City Temple of Baltimore Baptist Church where she has been a member for 40+ years. She was an active, dedicated and committed member of City Temple. She loved to sing and sang on various choirs including; the Sanctuary Choir, Gospel Chorus, Temple Choir and the Concert Choir. Geraldine served on the Adult Sunday school ministry, Young at Heart ministry, new member's ministry and various outreach ministries during her years of service. She served her church faithfully and she loved and looked forward to attending the Lott Carey Annual Baptist Convention each year. Geraldine was also an avid reader and would sometimes read several books in one day. Geraldine loved to travel with her travel buddies to places like Hawaii, Jamaica, the Bahamas and she went on several Caribbean cruises, but most of all, she loved and cherished spending time with family and friends. To know Geraldine was to love her. She had such a kind, sweet, caring and loving spirit that made you feel good being around her. She was truly a people person who would talk to everybody in her presence. She would often get addresses, phone numbers and birthdays from people she just met to send cards. Geraldine was known for giving two dollar bills in cards for all occasions

Geraldine leaves to cherish the precious memories of her life; six daughters Ferinda M. Richardson, Vanessa D. Williams Veronica M. Davis-Lunn, Rosa M. Davis, Andrea M. Davis-Bradford, and Yolanda S. Johnson; one son-in-law, Minister. Francel L. Johnson; four sisters, Rosetta McAlister of Baltimore, MD, Valeski Smith of Manassas, VA, Mary Carter and Evelyn Jones of Littleton, NC; 15 grandchildren, 26 great grandchildren 1 great-great-grandchild; and a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends.

Two brothers preceded her in death, David and Donald Williams, one sister Gloria Jones and two sons-in-law Cornelius H. Richardson and Randolph E. Lunn.
