“ To the family of Mrs. Cole, please accept my condolences. Death is something we all long to see come to an end, and one day God promises that it will. But for now it's a harsh reality we all have to face. It's a comfort to know though that one day we have the opportunity to be reunited with our loved ones again. Jesus made this heartwarming statement at John 11:25, "I am the resurrection and the life." "He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies will come to life." So faith is the key. If our faith is strong, and we are obedient to his word, just as Jesus was obedient to his father, Jehovah God; then we will be reunited with our loved ones in a future resurrection that Acts 24:15 speaks about. So please find comfort in his word, as well as in your cherished memories of happier days.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
