

Geraldine Elizabeth Dewitt

June 3, 1939 - July 10, 2006

GERALDINE ELIZABETH TAYLOR DEWITT was born in Richmond, Virginia on June 3, 1939. She was the daughter of Islean Cheatham. She entered into eternal life July 10, 2006, after a short illness. She was a graduate of Maggie L. Walker High School. She met and married Schuler Dewitt, Sr. They moved to Philadelphia, where she received the Spirits of the Holy Ghost. She attended a Holyness Church and devoted her life to doing the work of the Lord. Later, Geraldine returned to Richmond, Virginia, where she pursued her life as a Teacher's Aid at A.V. Norrell Elementary School. She later received a Nursing Degree and became LPN Nurse. She was employed at Chippenham Hospital for 13 years. After leaving Chippenham, she decided to do private duty nursing. She wanted to give more of herself, so she pursued a career at University Park Nursing Home, where she stayed until she retired in 2002 to take care of her mother and stepfather. She was a loving and caring person to all who knew her. She always had time to listen and talk to you. She will be loved and missed by all who walked in her pathway. She was more than a mother, she was a true friend. If there was something or anything to say about her, it had to be something good. She taught many to put God first. She was a true Servant of God. Geraldine leaves to cherish her memory her mother, Islean Cheatham; two daughters, Mary A.E. Dewitt and Charleatha Muldrow (Bonnie); four sons, Melvin Dewitt (Gloria), Schuler Dewitt, Jr., Curtis Dewitt and Calvin Dewitt (Cynthia); a host of grand and great grandchildren, among them four devoted granddaughters, Margaretta Dewitt, Shantell Dewitt, Sharonda Terry, and Tamioka Winston; devoted grandson, Rickey Dewitt; three goddaughters; godson; sister, Corrina Johnson; seven brothers, John Taylor, Ermer Taylor, Curtis Taylor, Ceasar Artist, Solomon Artist, Paul Artist, and Derrick Artist; two devoted cousins, Arthen Chinaea and Pastor Bea Lowry; two devoted friends, Shirley Wallace and Carolyn Doyle and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ My condolences to the family and friends. The Bible is a source of comfort and encouragement at such times. Acts 24:15 helps us to appreciate that there is going to be a resurrection both the righteous and unrighteous. Jesus promises to resurrect all in his father's memory in the near future to live in peaceful conditions. May you find comfort and strength in Jesus' promises.##imported-begin##Sean##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ My heartfelt condolences to the family and friends of Mrs. Dewitt for your loss. Death is a devastating event to the family, which is so hard to bear. May you take comfort in the scripture found at Rev. 21 3,4 which says, "look! "The tent of God is with mankind, and he will reside with them, and they will be his peoples. "And God himself will be with them. "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more; neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore." "The former things things have passed away." Can we really believe that this promise will come true. Notice verse 5-6. "And the one seated on the throne said" "Look! "I am making all things new. "Also he says: "Write, because these words are faithful and true." "I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. "To anyone thirsting I will give from the fountain of the water of life free. So you see dear ones, Jehovah is a fullfiller of his promises, and one day if we are faithful; we will see our dead ones come back to life again to live forever in peace.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. First Corinthians 15:26 tells us that death is our enemy and one day death will be destroyed. There is hope of our loved ones returning to life with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain.(Revelation 21:4, Matthew 5:5 and Luke 23:43) Also Acts 24:15 says- "And I have hope toward God, which hope these [men] themselves also entertain,that there is going to be a resurrection." May you receive much comfort and strength as you reflect on these loving promises from the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ My condolences to the family and friends of Ms. Dewitt. When we lose a love one in death, the pain and grief can seem unbearable. At such times, we need God's Word for comfort. At John 5:28,29 Jesus said that "all those in their memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." Yes, a resurrection of our dead love ones. There are other accounts of the resurrection proof in the Holy Scriptures. Please read these and be comforted of this promise that is laid before us.##imported-begin##V Adams##imported-end##
