

Geraldine Frazier

February 19, 1934 - February 9, 2003

Geraldine Knight Frazier, beloved wife of Lloyd Frazier, daughter of the late Elmore and Elizabeth Young, was born on February 19, 1934. She departed this life on February 9, 2003. She was educated in the Baltimore country Schools. She left at an early age to take care of her mother. Geraldine worked at Baltimore City Hospitals in Housekeeping for many years. She was last employed at Sesame Seed Academy in Atlanta, Georgia where she was an infant teacher until her health failed her. She received the Lord Jesus Christ as her personal Savior at an early age and was baptized by the late Rev. Nathaniel Mondie. She was a member of Galilee Baptist church for many years where she attended Sunday school and sang on the Junior Choir and Chorus for a long time. She also sang for the original Young Sisters for years. She then left Galilee to play the piano for the Youth Choir at Faith Tabernacle Baptist Church in 1984 for the late Rev. Edna Knight where she remained for many years. It was there she met and married the late Rev. Lloyd Frazier. She leaves to cherish her loving memory: five children—three sons, Leon, Michael and Keith Young and two daughters, Kathy and Cynthia Young; five stepchildren, Lloyd Frazier Jr., Raymond and Wayne Frazier, James and Alex; four sisters, Mary Scott, Sarah, Roberta, and Darlene Young; brothers, Carroll Young, Ralph, Carl, Eugene Young, David and Eddie; one great aunt, Rachelle Rollins; a loving daughter-in-law, Sally Young; brother-in-law, Stewart Frazier; sister-in-law; Rev. Cecilia Thompson; ten grandchildren, eleven great grandchildren, a host of nieces and nephews and friends including very special friends, Virginia Terry, Vallie Brown and Nancy Johnson.
