

Geraldine R. Hurtt

May 26, 1932 - May 6, 2016

Geraldine Rowena Hurtt, daughter of the late William H. and Louise Young, was born on May 26, 1932 in Gloucester, Virginia. She departed this life on May 6, 2016, after a lengthy illness.

After graduating from Gloucester Training High School in Gloucester, Va. as Class Valedictorian, she moved to Baltimore, Maryland. She enrolled in the Cortez Peters Business School, studying to become an Executive Assistant. After completion of those courses, she was employed as the Executive Assistant for the Principal of Sollers Point High School in Turner's Station. She was a member of Southern Baptist Church, located in East Baltimore. She married Preston Thomas Hurtt Sr. in September 1960, and out of this union six children were born: Vanessa Louise, Errol Gerard, Alfred Kevin, Kimberley Arnita, Welford Fitzgerald, and Rodney Lamar Hurtt.

Geraldine lived at 2644 E. Oliver Street for more than sixty-one years. With her extremely outgoing personality and generosity, she was known and loved by many who came from all walks of life. Few people in East Baltimore didn't know and respect Geraldine. Known for her sense of humor and friendly demeanor, she was also known to have a very sharp tongue. She spoke her mind freely and frequently. Fiercely protective of her children and the other neighborhood children, she was always eager to help, whether it was to give food and clothing to a family, prepare her macaroni and chicken salad for neighborhood bus trips to Atlantic City or just to provide comfort.

Preceding her in death are: her son, Alfred Hurtt; stepson, Preston T. Hurtt Jr. and grandchild, Kyndal Staten.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her children, Vanessa Hurtt, Errol Hurtt, Kimberley Hurtt, Welford Hurtt, and Rodney Hurtt; grandchildren; Errol T. Hurtt, Khary D. Hudson, Kinard Hurtt, Dominique Hurtt of Michigan, Damiane Cain, Renard Logan, Vernet Hurtt, ten great-grandchildren and numerous cousins.

I'm very sadden to hear of the passing of Ms. Geraldine who was like a grandmother to me. Always warm, welcoming and smiling. May she sleep in eternal peace.
