

Geraldine M. Johnson

April 20, 1933 - May 6, 2012

Geraldine Mildred Johnson, daughter of the late Horace Nowlin and Etta Viola Brown. She was born on April 20th, 1933 in Campbell County, Rustburg, Virginia. She was called home May 6, 2012 after a lengthy illness.

She received her education in the Public School System of Rustburg, Virginia. She accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior at an early age and reinstated her membership on October 9th, 2011 at First Baptist of Cherry Hill. She worked for a short time before deciding to stay at home to take care of her grandchildren.

Her lifelong friend and companion, James Jackson, who was affectionately known as Jack passed away years ago.

Geraldine, formally known as "Momma" or to many of the family "Grandma" was like a mother to all.

Little Asa's mother was taken away from him at the age of 4 months old and his father was making a career in the Navy. Geraldine became the mother to Little Asa and assisted her son in the raising of her grandson.

Geraldine loved cooking, gardening, listening to her gospel music, dancing and singing with her kids (Something that will be truly missed).

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be "a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
