“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ My condolences to the family for your loss. It is a real tragedy when we lose someone we love in death. No how many times we lose someone we never get used to it. It's our desire to be with our loved ones forever. Very soon that desire will become a reality by means of the resurrection. God promises us in the bible at John 5:28,29 that the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." Very soon instead of tears of sorrow, we will be shedding tears of joy when Jehovah restores our loved ones back to life, never to leave us again. May you be comforted by these promises as well as your precious memories.##imported-begin##R Johnaon##imported-end##

“ So sorry to hear about the loss of your loved one. 1 Corinthians informs us that death is "the last enemy" and it will be "destroyed". Job 14:15 tells how Almighty God "will call", will bring our loved ones back to life with the hope of no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. (Revelation 21:3-5) May you receive much comfort and strength as you think deeply on these promises from the Bible.##imported-begin##S. Hill##imported-end##

Death is truly a enemy of mankind and it brings much pain, but that enemy will not rule forever as 1Corinthains 15:25,26 tells us. He (death) will be brought to nothing. We will have an opporunity to see those who fall asleep in death again right here on earth Jesus Christ so lovely tells us {all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out to life.} This is a promise from Almighty God Jehovah through his son Jesus Christ.
