

Geraldine M Bland

December 31, 1929 - April 8, 2009

Geraldine Melvina Bland, daughter of the late Emma Jenkins and Raymond Jackson was born on December 31, 1929 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on April 8, 2009 after a lengthy illness. Geraldine received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. During her youth, Geraldine worked in food service. Geraldine had two daughters. Her oldest daughter preceded her in death at the age of two. She married Junius Bland and out of that marriage Gerald Gross was born. Geraldine was a very quiet person with a very big heart. She liked to spend many hours sitting in her own personal lawn chair watching out for the neighborhood. There was very little crime on her watch. She would do anything she could for you. Geraldine was known for her spaghetti and home made rolls. Her favorite things to do were to play cards, do needle point and write poetry. She was an active member of Fountain Baptist Church for many years. Geraldine will truly be missed. She leaves to mourn, one daughter, Gerald Gross, one sister, Bertha Jenkins; two grandchildren, De'Vette Lee Andrews and Robert Summerfield Gross Jr. three great-grandchildren, Alia Tashia Richardson, Tashia Alia Skinner and Dawan Lee Lawrence; one niece, Novella Taylor and three very special cousins, Grace Comer, Pauline Comer and Princess Warren and a host of other relatives and friends.
