

Geraldine Rosalie Green

March 3, 1923 - September 17, 2005

GERALDINE R. Green, daughter of Maggie and Floyd Flack, was born on March 3, 1923 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on September 17, 2005 after a lengthy illness. She was a resident at Jenkins Memorial Nursing Home, where she received excellent care. She received her education at Hampton University School of Nursing. She returned to Baltimore to marry Ralgia Kenneth Green, and out of this union their son Reginald L. Green was born. Despite life long health problems, Geraldine showed a strong desire to overcome these health problems and she was helped with that by her two sisters, Lilyan and Gladys. She leaves to mourn: her son, Reginald L. Green; two sisters, Lilyan F. Slater and Gladys F. Parker; niece, Wendy Parker Robinson; one great-niece, Danielle Robinson-Jones; and many relatives and friends.

“ Ms. Geraldine & I became very close friends. My mother is at the same Nursing Home as Geraldine was. I would help Geraldine play Bingo and would visit her every Thursday evening. I fed her dinner last Thursday night. She said to me "you are so good to me" I will miss her terribly. God Bless You Miss Geraldine.##imported-begin##Louise Sinnott##imported-end##

“ MAY GOD BLESS AND KEEP YOU IN YOUR TIME OF SORROW. I WILL MISS GERALDINE VERY MUCH. MY MOM WAS IN THE NURSING HOME WITH GERALDINE AND MY FAMILY AND GERALDINE'S SISTER'S BECAME FRIENDS OR SHOULD I SAY WE GAINED ANOTHER FAMILY. I WILL ALWAYS HAVE A LOT OF FOND AND CHERISHED MEMORIES OF HER. ONE SAYING I WILL NEVER FORGET HER SAYING ALL THE TIME "GOD WORKS IN MYSTERIOUS WAYS".##imported-begin##PEGGY DRENNER##imported-end##
