

Geraldine G. Sterrette

June 15, 1923 - June 26, 2011

GERALDINE DORSEY STERRETTE, daughter of Charles and Margaret Lee Dorsey was the oldest of five children. She was born on June 15, 1923 in Baltimore, Maryland and was welcome into the arms of God on June 26, 2011.

Residing in Baltimore and later in Philadelphia, "Gerrie," as she was affectionately called by family and friends, was educated in the Baltimore City School System and in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania private schools. She was employed in the garment cleaning and restoration industry for many years at the Village of Cross Keys and The Rotunda Shopping Center.

Geraldine married Jerome Sterrette on June 14, 1975. They joined the Emmanuel Christian Community Church. Witty and opinionated, Geraldine love to cook, entertain, and decorate for the holiday, especially Christmas. She had many miniature keepsakes displayed in her home for visitors to admire. Geraldine loved children and kept treats on hand for them to enjoy. She had a flair for fashion. Her jovial personality and smile will always be remembered.

Siblings, Joseph and Alice preceded Geraldine in death. She leaves to mourn:

“ You don't know me but as one of Jehovah's Witnesses I would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 2yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again! Any Jehovah's Witnesses that you meet would love to show you in the Bible the truth about death! Again so sorry for your loss!!

Ms Springer - June 29, 2011 at 01:26 PM

“ I am sorry for the lost of your loved one in death. May precious memories and promise of the resurrection bring you strength and comfort.

John 5:28-29 states: Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life and those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgement.

My deepest symphathy

“ May the family of Geraldine Sterrette find comfort in your loving memories, and in knowing that God is "near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves." (Psalm 34;18) He has promised to soon "swallow up death forever...and wipe the tears from all faces." (Isaiah 25;8) With deepest sympathy,
