“ *Dear Family,
Fond memories of our life-long friend, are heartfelt, too as we all knew of visiting her home sometimes between Sunday School and Church for a quick snack or a homemade roll. Such love always prevailed! Ms. G. was so sweet.*

I am so thankful that Geraldine was one of the people I met at church and visited her and her family. So many fond memories. The huge , beautiful Christmas tree and the trimmings. Of course, the food and those large cakes were delicious. Geraldine was smart and bold. She wore pants to church. When it was not so popular. Thank you family for continuing the legacy of love. She will be remembered.

“ My husband Tyrone and I have nothing but fond memories of Ms. G. She was always warm and loving. That smile was like a warm blanket, inviting you into her embrace. When our families joined by marriage, it was a family extension that was created by God. We pray for comfort and peace for her family.

“ Farewell to my Auntie/2nd Mama. Gonna miss you so much and your calling me “mouzy, not mousey but yes “mouzy”. You were the best auntie in the world who disciplined and loved all the children of Washington Park. That’s why you’ll always be a Mom, Nee-Nee, Grandma, friend and many other wonderful names. Rest in heavenly peace until the morning comes. Love you Auntie, mouzy.

“ My deepest condolences goes out the Wimbish Family. I remember many fund days of welcoming visits one in particular when we were viewing a program that required 3D glasses. How we all set in the living room looking so ridiculous lol. That’s the kind of hospitality Mrs. Wimbish showed.

We All Love Mrs. wimbish but God Loves Her BEST, AMEN 🙏
