“ My condolences to the Davis family. Death is something that we never get use to. In fact, the last enemy that God and Jesus will get rid of is death as 1 Corinthians 15:26 says: as the last enemy death is brought to nothing. Yes the last enemy that God and Jesus will get rid of is death because they love us and know the pain that death brings to families. So please go to him in your spare time and taste and see that he is willing and able to strengthen you to go through any circumstances that may arise. I hope these facts bring you and your family some comfort during your difficult time.

“ I am so sorry for your lost. Losing a loved one is never easy. Jehovah God promises to do away with all of our suffering. This is found in Rev 21:4. I encourage you and your family to read this in your own copy of the bible. I hope this helps in your time of need.

“ May you recieve all comfort, support, and strength from our loving heavenly father Jehovah, who is the God of all comfort. 2nd Cor 1:3,4. When a loved one dies, we wonder, when will I see my loved one again? The faithful man Job in the bible asked the same question. At Job 14,14 he asked, "If an able-bodied man dies, can he live again? Notice the answer at verse 15. Job under inspiration said, "You will call, and I myself shall answer you. "For the work of your hands you will have a yearning. Yes Job knew that God has a yearning to see his faithful servants live again. That is why he promises at Rev 21,4 that he will wipe out every tear from our eyes, and death will be no more. He also promises at Isaiah 25:8 that he will swallow up death forever and certainly wipe the tears from all faces." Through the promised ressurection, we will see our loved ones again. Acts 24:15, Daniel 12:2. May these promises from God comfort your hearts, and help you to endure each day that comes; secure in the knoledge that Gerrod will one day live again. May the good times you shared with him over the years sustain you and help you to go on.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my deepest sympathy for the loss of your dear loved one. It is only natural that we yearn to see our loved ones again since God put time indefinite into our hearts (Eccl. 3:11). We look forward to the time when mourning will be a thing of the past and 1Cor15:26 talks about a time when "the last enemy death is to be brought to nothing". After this is accomplished, we will be able to welcome back those who are in the memorial tombs (John5:28-29) to a peaceful earth. May the "God of all comfort" sustain you during this difficult time (2Cor1:3-4, Psalm55:22). Warmest regards, C. Murphy##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##
