

Gertrude Cox

May 26, 1915 - March 26, 2013

On March 26, 2013, it pleased the Lord to call home His daughter, QUEEN GERTRUDE TRENT COX after a brief illness. Gertrude Trent was born on May 26, 1915 to the late Lancaster and Ophelia (Motley) Trent in Cumberland, Virginia.

She was baptized at an early age at Rocky Mountain Baptist Church and attended the Cumberland County Public Schools. She later met and married Clarence Foster in Richmond, Virginia and from this union, Betty Foster Wilson was born. In 1940, she moved to Baltimore, Maryland; became employed domestically and married George Cox, who preceded her in death. She joined United Baptist Church in 1941 and remained a member until her death.

She loved to cook and you never found her home without a cake made from scratch. She often entertained company from various states and would play cards for hours. She really loved all of her family. God blessed her to see four generations behind her.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her brother, George Trent of Riverhead, Long Island; and sister-in-law, Mollie Trent; her daughter, Betty Foster Wilson of Baltimore, MD; her stepdaughter, Roberta Scipio of Philadelphia, PA; two goddaughters, Minister Vanessa Armond of Wilmington, NC and Gladys Archie Motley of Richmond, VA; grandson, Vernon L. Wilson, Sr. (grandson, Darryl Wilson preceded her in death); and a special granddaughter, Darlene Robbins; four great-grandchildren, Diarra Wilson Gordon, Shontaé Wilson, Vernon L. Wilson, Jr. and Vernon M. Wilson; two great-great-grandchildren, Nathan Gordon, Jr. and Bailey A. Dandridge; a special niece, Delores “Ann” Davis; and a host of other nieces, nephews, relatives and special friends.

“ You have my deepest sympathy. May the God of all comfort supply you with the strength needed to endure these difficult times and may you find peace in the resurrection hope found in John 5:28, 29.

Delores Allen - April 02, 2013 at 07:21 AM

“ Dear Family and Friends,
It is understood that the pain, the grief, and the feelings of helplessness can seem unbearable when you lose a loved one. During these times, you can find comfort in God's Word. The Bible helps us to understand how Jehovah and Jesus feel about death. Jehovah promised that “He will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore.”—Revelation 21:4 Jesus said that “all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus'] voice and come out.” (John 5:28, 29) People who are to be restored to life right here on earth will be reunited with their loved ones. The dead will not be raised to life in a world filled with war, crime, and sickness, because God's purpose is that the whole earth be made into a paradise. They will have an opportunity to live forever on this earth in peaceful and happy conditions. What a loving God and such a wonderful hope for you and your loved one.

Sincerely,
A Bible Student

“ To the Family and Friends of Gertrude Cox,

I want to express my deepest sympathy to you all at this time. I have experienced losing loved ones in death and it definitely not a pleasant ordeal to go through. We are so filled with emotion at this time because we miss seeing their smiling faces. But we should take comfort in knowing they are no longer living in pain. They are no longer living in this wicked and twisted world that we have to confront everyday. Revelation 21:4 says, " And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain will be anymore. The former things have passed away." Sp, death will soon be a thing of the past and you can rest assure that Jehovah God will make true his words. My heart goes out to you all this time and yor family is definitely in my prayers.

To the Family of Gertrude Cox, you have my deepest sympathy in the loss of your dear loved one. The Bible describes death as a "sting" as it causes so much pain and grief. Ones life is never the same after such a loss. However, the God of Comfort, as he is described at Romans 15:4 will help to sustain you during these difficult times. Continue to draw close to Jehovah, the God of Love, and he will draw close to you.
