

Gertrude Diggs

October 17, 1932 - January 13, 2007

GERTRUDE DIGGS, daughter of the late Goals Wilson, Sr. and Ada Locks Wilson, was born in Baltimore, Maryland on October 17, 1932. Gertrude departed this life after a lengthy illness on January 13, 2007. Gertrude received her education at the Frederick Douglass Senior High School. She later matriculated at the Rosewood State Hospital School of Practical Nursing. On October 7, 1950, Gertrude married the late Charles A. Diggs, Sr. Charlie was the love of her life. From this union, two children, Charles, Jr. (Tony) and Rhonda were born. During the forty-six years they were together, the couple traveled extensively and was active in many clubs and organization. Gertie was one stylish lady! She loved clothes and wore them well. She is remembered as an avid traveler, bowler and card player, especially the game of Pinochle. Her happiest times were spent socializing with family and friends. In 1961, Gertrude began her employment at Rosewood State Hospital. Upon completion of her formal training, she became employed as a nurse for several pediatric practices. Gertrude brought smiles and warm hugs to many patients over the years. She retired in 1994. She was preceded in death by her sisters, June, Helen and Dinora and brother, Alvin. Cherished memories of Gertrude will sustain and keep her survivors who include: her beloved children, Charles Anthony Diggs, Jr. and Rhonda Wilcox; Granddaughter, India Diggs; Great-granddaughter, Aja; a son-in-law, Curtis Wilcox; her loving brothers and sisters, Delois Rowley, Goals Wilson, Jr., Evelyn Bennett, and Barry Wilson; caring nieces, nephews and a host of extended family and dear friends, and a very special caretaker, Katherine Bannerman.

Tribute Wall

“ Gertrude Diggs

---

March 25, 2023 at 10:25 AM

“ Gertrude Diggs

---

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ To the family and friends of Gertrude Diggs my deepest condolences. May you cherish her memory. The Bible has words of comfort at 1 Corinthians 15:26, "As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing." God has promised to do away with death and the pain that it causes. May these words be of comfort to the family.##imported-begin##Sean##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. The Bible promises at 1 Corinthians 15:26 that our enemy death will be destroyed one day. There is much hope of our loved ones returning to life in a peaceful new world with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. (Please read Revelation 21:3-5, 2 Peter 3:13 and Acts 24:15) May you receive much comfort and strength from friends, family and the many loving promises found in the Holy Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM