“ To the family, I would like to express my condolences to the family on your loss. Please reflect at this time to what Jesus and his apostles have done in the past and promises to do in the future. Luke 7:11-16 he ressurected a greiving widows son and at Luke 8:40-42 he ressurected a young girl to her parents. We are promised by the Almighty God, that he will do the same for us at Acts 24:15. This will take place after this earth is restored to a paradise. (Psm 37:10,11) May these scriptures comfort you at this time.##imported-begin##T.Taylor##imported-end##

“ I offer my sympathy to the family and friends of Gertrude E Boddie. It seems unfair that death has the power to take away someone we love. The Bible is comforting in this regard. It promises that our loved ones now dead will live again. You can read these words at John 11:20-27. May you continue to rely and find comfort in reading the Bible.##imported-begin##P Land##imported-end##

“ I am very sorry for your loss. I hope this scripture give you much comfort. Revelation chapter 21:4; "and he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning, nor outcry, nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." May God continue to strengthen you. Sincerely, C. Bain###imported-begin##Charlotte Bain###imported-end##

“ May you have my condolences for the lost of your love one. When death happens to be upon one of our love ones like Ms. Booddie it can bring much sorrow, because this is pain hard to get use to because God didn't plan for this to be a normal thing. But may you find relief and knowing that God does care and soon he will do away with death forever but until then may we continue to read his word and do as John 11:25 say excercise faith, because he will strenghten us. May you continue to read God's word daily for support###imported-begin##D. Farmer###imported-end##
