

Gertrude G. Thacker

June 20, 1912 - July 7, 2003

Gertrude Thacker, daughter of the late George and Lula Winfield, was born on June 20, 1912 in Greensboro, North Carolina. She departed this life on July 7, 2003 after a lengthy illness. "Tudie", as she was affectionately called, was educated in North Carolina. She was a housewife for many years and for a short length of time she was employed as a domestic worker. Tudie was married to the late Gussie Thacker for over 30 years. She was a member of St. Paul Baptist Church, Baltimore, Maryland and attended various other churches around the city. She was a dear loving mother, grandmother, friend and gracious human being. She leaves to cherish her memory: three daughters, Frances Coates, Marguerite Arthur and Helen Cheeks; one son, Howard Thacker; one daughter-in-law, Jeanetta Thacker; one son-in-law, Robert Coates; thirteen grandchildren; the late Doreen, Leatrice, Raymond, Veronica, Lavidia, Renee, Lisa, Daphne, Sherman, Nina, Howard Jr., Donahue and Wade; twenty great-grandchildren and a devoted friend of the family, Ralph Sanders.
